NEWS OF

SOUTH RICHMOND

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Southside Democrats are invited to attend a political rally to be held by the South Richmond Democratic Club Friday night at the quarters of the organization in Fraternal Hall. All candidates who will participate in the coming primary have been invited to appear before the meeting, and in short talks give the platform upon which they seek election. Among the others who will speak is W. T. Dabney, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

From a local standpoint the will be rounded up at one time.

Try to Kill Park Pet.

Parkkeeper J. Lacy Redford will issue warrants this morning for the arrest of a quartet of Southside young-sters who attempted to kill the lone squirrel that lives among the branches of the trees of Washington Park. The boys are said to have stood in the square and heaved rocks at it. The names of three have been secured and all will be rounded up at one time.

Contracts Are Awarded.

Contracts for various work around Manchester postal station have been awarded by the Post-Office Department upon recommendation of Superintendent L. B. Lloyd, who was authorized to receive bids for the installation of a vacuum cleaning system and additional lights. The Western Electric Company received the contract for the cleaner. The lights are already being installed by F. N. Steigleder & Co., of Richmond.

In accordance with orders from the main office, the Southside carriers have made a report of the actual time they collect mail from each box, and when it is delivered at the office for trans-

Candidate Toney Announces Platform.

In a public letter yesterday, D. L.
Toney, candidate for the Legislature from the city of Richmond, announced the platform upon which he would make the race. Mr. Toney is opposed to prison contract labor and is favorable toward the enactment of such legislation as may tend to the uplifting of the laboring people. He is in favor of local option with proper restrictions. Mr. Toney opposes the fee system and is in favor of the conditions. tem and is in favor of the equalization of taxation, making each county bear its own burden. He also favors liberal appropriations for the support and maintenance of needy Confederate sol-diers, both in and out of the Soldiers' Home. Another plank in the platform is good roads.
